Consent to exchange with partners (leadtracking)

*Your privacy is very important to us. Our partners have been equipped with lead retrieval tied to the bookmark tab, session evaluation and request meeting function within our Event Platform. They will be using these tools to collect your business contact information should you be interested in learning more about their products and services. Please keep this in mind when communicating with our event partners.

Your contact information will only be shared should you consent to exchange with partners (leadtracking) or opt-in through the digital form.

Our partners are only allowed to market to those with opt-in.

☒ *Yes, I agree that my data (name, role, company, telephone, e-mail, city, country and if applicable dwell time) may be passed on to the exhibitors of the event with the purpose of sending me advertising information on the services they offer. This consent applies only to exhibitors whose exhibitor profile content or DMEXCO Conference content I have used.
